THE SERMON

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Silence may be kept.

Most Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We are not righteous, and we do not love you with our whole heart; we have not loved you with our whole mind; we have not loved you with our whole strength; we are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your holy Name, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your love and praise you forever and ever, in the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins, and strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit, lead you to everlasting life. Amen.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

Communion Hymn | See Instructions

Post Communion Prayer

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks Christ, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as penitents, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Blood of your Son. Do this for us now, Lord, that we may be brought into the world in peace, and grant us strength with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord.

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

THE BLESSING

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,
